It was Sunday afternoon and two disciples of Jesus were going home, walking the six miles from Jerusalem to Emmaus. As they walked along, they met a stranger who came with them on their journey.

1. How were the two disciples feeling when they met the stranger?
2. Why were they feeling that way?
3. Why were they surprised by the stranger?
4. What did they ask the stranger to do when they got to Emmaus?
5. When did they recognise that the stranger was Jesus?
6. What happened next?
